

It is my pleasure to introduce you to Refuge Dance Company, a collection of professional dancers within the Atlanta area who present thought provoking works revealing the redemptive message of love and grace. A volunteer company, Refuge embraces dancers who would normally have no place to dance. Many dance companies do not accommodate dancers as they get older, start a family or need to further their education. Refuge embraces those dancers and creates a safe, flexible environment that allows the dancer to continue dancing through their life-changes.

Over the past five years Refuge Dance Company has:

- Provided a positive dancing environment and dance classes free of charge to over 40 dancers
- Created a full-length work based on the novel Hinds' Feet on High Places by Hannah Hurnard
- Produced six repertory performances in addition to many community events
- Participated three times in Dance Canvas, an emerging choreographer showcase with many other companies within the Atlanta arts community
- Acted as Fiscal Sponsor for Compass Dance Academy in Tyrone, GA through the process of establishing Compass' first studio
- Served as local host for the Project Dance Foundation's annual Atlanta event from 2007-2010

Now we're ready to do even more!

Refuge Dance Company is committed to being an active voice within the dance community in Atlanta, including offering several productions in venues throughout the metro Atlanta area each year.

Refuge Dance Company also partners with local rescue and recovery programs such as Women of Gilgal, Breakthru House and Wellspring Living to provide dance classes free of charge to those on the road to recovery.

In order for us to continue to impact our community and expand our reach, we are seeking individual and corporate support. We ask that you consider partnering with us as we seek to speak the message of love and grace through the beautiful medium of dance to as large an audience as possible.

Sincerely,

How You Can Help

Refuge Dance Company is in need of partners who are interested in helping to build us up. Our most pressing need currently is funding. As we shared above, Refuge Dance Company is in the process of expanding our programs to reach a larger number of people. As our programs continue to grow, so does our financial need. There are two main ways to partner with us financially – Monthly Partnership and a One-time Gift.

Monthly Partnership – Below are our recommended monthly partnership levels along with the number of partners we are seeking at each level.

- $10.14 – “Venti Lattes for 2” Level – your monthly gift, equaling the cost two Venti lattes at your local Seattle-based purveyor of coffee, goes toward the printing costs for one of our performance series or two guest teachers for Refuge’s company classes.  - Complimentary tickets for two to one of our performances

- $99 – “Did I pay the Cable Bill?” Level – The most HD programming, blazingly fast High-speed Internet, and Unlimited local & long distance calling to anywhere in the U.S. – OK, so we can’t offer you any of that, but for the same price (minus the Franchise and Federal Regulatory fees), your donation covers the cost of costumes for one of Refuge’s works or 12 Outreach classes.
